FROM OUR PARTNERS:

Political parties not doing enough to achieve affirmative action

Kenyans are preparing to go for the next general elections on 8th of August this year. However, there is concern amongst stakeholders that in the absence of affirmative action legislation, it is very likely that more than two thirds of the members of Kenya's next parliament will be men....more.

"I have been in politics since 2007 and have now taken a back from running for political seats and decided to rally behind women who come from Bungoma County to make sure they make it into parliament and even the senate. Woman can be good leaders and are very able to break the glass ceiling in matters of leadership if they stay united"

Mrs. Hilda Lukulu Sianga
Woman Political Leader,
Bungoma County
