

Why is gender inclusivity smart business?

In an increasingly globalized and interconnected world, utilizing all social and economic assets is crucial for success. Despite progress, women continue to confront discrimination more

Shattering Kenya's glass ceiling in Politics

Hon. Dr. Joyce Laboso the Governor-elect of Bomet county in Kenya's Rift Valley region, made history when she became one of the first women ever elected for that position... more

A win for every woman and girl in Nakuru

Hon. Kihika after her victory, spoke of herself as a good example of what women can do regardless of their age.... more

Inspiring leadership among young women

23-year-old Lengewa Silantoi Suzanne from the nomadic Samburu region defied all odds when she decided to vie for senatorial position in Nairobi against the incumbent and veterans more

OCTOBER EVENTS

TBC : awareness and community activation on Ending Violence Against Women and Girls @ Kericho

11th : International Day of the Girl Child

24th : UN Day @ Nairobi

"Women own 48% of Medium and small Enterprises in Kenya but only contribute 20% to the Gross DP; there is need for us as women in the manufacturing sector to scale up our businesses. The women in manufacturing caucus will help us achieve this through the mapping of sector to identify potential for more women and ensure gender mainstreaming in the industry continues to be a key issue."

Ms Florah Mutahi
Chairperson
Kenya Association of Manufacturers

MUST READ:

The community land rights of women and youth in Tana River and Turkana Counties

The community land rights of women and youth in Tana River County, Kenya

The community land rights of women and youth in Turkana County, Kenya

GBV Directory of National and County contacts

FROM OUR PARTNERS:

Finding an equal place for women in the elections remains an obligation of the 12th Parliament

Despite the increase in women's representation, the two thirds gender principle that requires...more.

UN Women is supported by:

